Home Construction and the Hardman name are synonymous with the building industry. For more than 37 years RS Hardman Building Co., has built a reputation of integrity, timeless quality, and superior customer relations in the home building industry. RS Hardman Building Co. prides itself in providing personalized attention to each client and making the building process of their dream home an enjoyable and memorable experience. Client satisfaction has always been and continues to be a top priority. Our enthusiasm for building beautiful homes along with our personalized commitment to our clients is what sets us apart as leaders in the construction industry.

RS Hardman's relationship with Promontory started in 2003. We have been privileged to be one of the longest running builders in Promontory and are proud of the high-quality homes we have built. Over the past 16 years we have been fortunate to see Promontory grow and develop into the community it is today and recognized as a premier community throughout the country.

As members ourselves of Promontory, we have been very involved in the community and enjoy the lifestyle it provides. Scott (owner of RS Hardman Building Co.) has served on the Covenants Committee and is now in his second term as an owner elected board member. RS Hardman Building Co. is very committed to this wonderful community and we look forward to many more years of building in and enjoying our relationship with Promontory and its members.

Experience a Hardman SIGNATURE Home

"Our experience with Scott was fantastic; he balanced the creative ideas of our architect and designer to build our dream home."
